Re: Dkt. 22

MODIFIED BY THE COURT

The parties, through their counsel of record, stipulate that the Court may enter the following protective order:

1. This Stipulated Protective Order ("Order") shall govern the handling of information, including documents, tangible things, and discovery materials produced by any party or non-party within the context of this litigation.

2. "Document" shall be interpreted broadly and shall include, without limitation, any "writing," "original," and "duplicate" as defined in Federal Rule of Evidence 1001.

3. In connection with this action, any party to this action ("the Designating Party") shall have to the right to designate any Document as CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Order. "Confidential Material" shall refer to material that the Designating Party reasonably believes: (1) to constitute proprietary information and/or trade secrets

1 relating to its business, and/or information in which the party or third parties have a 2 privacy interest, and (2) to be subject to protection from disclosure under applicable law.
3 Confidential Material may be designated by any party and stamped or labeled 4 "CONFIDENTIAL." Stamping the legend on the cover of any multi-page document shall 5 designate all pages of the document as confidential, unless otherwise indicated by the 6 Designating Party.

7 4. In connection with this action, any Designating Party also shall have to the 8 right to designate any Document as CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY under 9 the terms of this Order. Confidential—Attorneys Eyes Only Material shall refer to material 10 that the Designating Party reasonably believes: (1) to constitute highly confidential and 11 sensitive information business, and/or information in which the party or third parties have 12 a privacy interest, and (2) to be subject to protection from disclosure under applicable law.
13 Confidential—Attorneys Eyes Only Material may be designated by any party and stamped 14 or labeled "CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY." Stamping the legend on the 15 cover of any multi-page document shall designate all pages of the document as 16 confidential, unless otherwise indicated by the Designating Party.

17 5. Confidential Material and Confidential—Attorneys Eyes Only Material shall 18 be referred to collectively in this Order as "Designated Material."

19 6. Confidential Material shall be disclosed only to persons whose input is 20 reasonably necessary to evaluate the information. Confidential shall be treated as 21 confidential by all persons to whom the information is disclosed and shall be used by all 22 such persons solely for the prosecution, defense, or settlement of the claims in issue in 23 this action.

24 7. Confidential—Attorneys Eyes Only Material shall be disclosed only to the 25 attorneys for the parties and their staffs, and any outside professionals or experts whose 26 input is reasonably necessary to evaluate the information. Confidential—Attorneys Eyes 27 Only Material shall be treated as highly confidential by all persons to whom the 28 information is disclosed and shall be used by all such persons solely for the prosecution,

1 defense, or settlement of the claims in issue in this action.

2 8. Any person given access to Designated Material pursuant to this Order shall 3 first be given a copy of this Order and shall agree in writing to be bound by its terms by 4 executing Exhibit A. The law firm obtaining the person's signature to Exhibit A will retain 5 the original signed agreement.

6 9. Any person receiving Designated Material under the terms of this Order 7 shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of any proceedings relating to 8 the performance under, compliance with or violations of this Order.

9 10. If a party receives legal process that would require production of Designated 10 Material covered by this Order, the party shall promptly notify the Designating Party and 11 shall not produce the Designated Material until the Designating Party has had reasonable 12 time to object or otherwise to take appropriate steps to protect the material.

13 11. Upon final termination of this action, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by 14 counsel of record for the Designating Party, each party shall promptly return all originals
15 and copies of Confidential Material to the Designating Party or to the party that produced 16 the Designated Material. Alternatively, the party in possession of the documents, with 17 approval of the designating party, may destroy or arrange for the destruction of the 18 documents and certify in writing within 30 days that the documents have been destroyed.
19 Notwithstanding the foregoing, attorneys for the parties may maintain in their files a copy 20 of any Confidential Material produced by the other party, in which case the attorneys shall 21 maintain the Confidential Material with the same level of care applied to the attorneys' 22 other confidential client files and records.

23 12. Upon final termination of this action, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by 24 counsel of record for the Designating Party, each party shall promptly destroy or arrange 25 for the destruction of Confidential—Attorneys Eyes Only Material received from the other 26 party and shall certify in writing within 30 days that the documents have been destroyed.

27 13. This Order shall be binding upon the parties immediately upon execution by 28 the parties, regardless of whether subsequently entered by the Court. The parties reserve

1 the right to apply jointly or individually to the Court for a modification of this order, on a 2 showing of good cause.
